PERFORMING ARTS SCHOLARSHIPS

performers in grades 6-10

Twin City Theater Academy offers performing arts scholarships to campers entering grades 6-10 with experience in acting, dance, or music and a strong commitment to an arts education. A 50% reduction is applied to Performance Track registration fees.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to intermediate and advanced-level performers. Recipients will commit to auditioned roles, including learning lines, choreography, and songs within our two-week production schedule.

HOW TO APPLY

Campers submit a personal essay to apply. Families may assist younger applicants with their essay. Please include the following:

- Previous performing arts experiences
- Area of interest (acting, dance, music), and where they are hoping to grow in the future
- How performing arts has impacted them

Specific examples and narratives are welcome!

DEADLINE

Parents/guardians submit the essays to parksandrec@sacomaine.org. We recommend that you submit your application in April. We will accept applications until May 22, 2026 or until the awards have been depleted.

REVIEW

Essays are evaluated by TCTA & SPR staff considering experience and production casting needs. Determinations will be sent to families before June via email.
